

We request you leave the state bills intact! Please do not do anything to weaken the state law. We cannot put into words the peace we enjoy in our home since the laws governing these phone calls went into effect! Thanking you in advance,
James and Joyce Blasko